Willard Henry Muters (4) Henry Jr.(3) Henry Sr. (2) Heinrich (1) was born December 18, 1904 in Pierre, SD, and died October 30, 1983 in Chicago, Illinois. He married Elizabeth Margaret Foster April 19, 1930 in Chicago, Illinois she was born June 19, 1907, and died February 11, 1980 in Chicago, Illinois.

Notes for Willard Henry Muters and Elizabeth Foster.

Willard Henry Muters was born on December 18, 1905, the third son and fifth child of Henry Jr. Muters and Anna Mary Meyer. He was born on his parent's farm near Spencer, SD. The first son, Samuel William died in April of 1904 at the age of five. At the time of Willard's birth he had two older sisters, Lydia and Iva Hazel and an older brother Clair Samuel, born 1904. Later in 1908 a younger brother Vern John Muters was born near Spencer. The baby of the family, Dena Mae Muters, was born in 1910 at Old Trail, SD.

The family moved from Spencer to homestead a farm at Old Trail in Stanley County near Fort Pierre, Sd. in about 1909. Willard with his family moved to southern Saskatchewan to homestead a farm near Quantock, which later became known as Rock Glen. Rock Glen is just into Saskatchewan, north of the Montana northern border, on the eastern side of Montana.

In about 1915 when Willard was about ten years old, he moved with his mother Anna, his brother's Clair and Vern and his sister Dena to Assiniboia. This was about forty-five miles north of Rock Glen and closer to a school. Willard's sister Dena remembers that Willard did not stay long in Assiniboia, but chose to return to the farm with his father.

Willard's father, Henry Jr. died in 1922 at age fifty seven, in a hospital in Assiniboia. willard left Canada when he was seventeen or eighteen years of age and returned to the United States. His sister Dena thought that he lived for a time in South Dakota and then later moved to Chicago, Illinois.

On April 19, 1930 Willard "Bill" Muters married Elizabeth Foster in Chicago. Three children were born to this marriage: Robert Henry Muters was born on July 19, 1935; Gleen willard Muters was born on November 19 1940 and Linda Diane Muters was born on November 28, 1945.

Elizabeth Margaret Foster Muters died on February 11, 1980 at age seventy two, in Chicago, Illinois.

Willard "Bill" Muters died on October 30, 1983, at age seventy seven, in Chicago, Illinois.

Notes for ISABELLE MEEKS:

She was one of 10 children. A pioneer in the real estate industry, Isabel began her career in 1959, becoming one of the first female members of the Chattanooga Board of Realtors in 1960. She began Langley Realty along with her husband Hiram in 1961 and successfully operated the company for more than 30 years. Recognizing the need for women to take leadership roles in what was then a predominantly male profession, Isabel was instrumental in forming the local Women's Council of Realtors in 1966, serving as vice-president and later as president of the local chapter. In 1973 she was appointed president and governor for the state chapter of the Women's Council of Realtors, where she traveled extensively throughout the State, implementing educational programs for the advancement of women in the real estate industry. She was named Women's Council Woman of the Year in 1983. Isabel's service to the local Chattanooga Board of Realtors was extensive, having served in numerous leadership roles on both the local and state level. She was named Realtor of the year in 1975. A tireless worker and fierce fundraiser, Isabel's community service included Greater Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce, where she served as an ambassador, Kosmos Women's Club, Pro-re-Bona Nursery and Daycare to benefit underprivileged working mothers, and the foundation of the Cumberland Youth Foundation in 1957. In 1985 Isabel's love for children led her to join the Siskin Phonathon, an annual event to benefit the Siskin Foundation and Siskin Foundation and Siskin Pre-School, where she continued as co-chair until 2001. Isabel was the first woman appointed to the CARTA Board in 1980, where she served for nearly twenty. She was honored at the dedication of the CARTA parking facility, where her picture hangs today. Survivors include her husband Hiram Langley of Chattanooga; daughter Priscilla Woods of Atlanta; sons and daughter-in-laws Hiram G (Chip) Langley III and wife Betty Anne, Mile Langley and wife Beverly of Chattanooga; sister Betty Sue Patton of Knoxville, and Edna Robinson; brother, Mart Meeks of Gruetli-Laguer; seven grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Funeral services will be held Thursday, October 23, at 11am at the First Presbyterian Church, 1505 Moore Road in Chattanooga with the Rev. Larry Schenk officiating.
