Linda, I'm so jealous, that I can't meet you. There are others in Tracy City that we are related too. Bill Tucker and two sisters. They are children of Anna Mae McFarland Tucker (my Aunt). Bill is a retired Postmaster. Every one knows him. Sorry about the scanning problem. Also at the Library in MontEagle is the senior citizen center. June Long is my cousin and she helps there.
Have fun-fun-fun.

TN Grundy Co. PO Tracy City 1880 census
McFarland, James 55 Farmer

Sarah M 28
John A 27
Julia 21
Dorkas 16
Adaline 13
Robert 11 I'm not sure on this age. My copy not clear..

James had two sons also, both marr on 1880 census.
William E 31 and Lora Crabtree 22.
George Carter b 1850 marr to Ella M Cox.

I will get my scanning problem and share what I have with you.
Edith

Hi:

Grandparents Robert and Jane are buried there. I think there are 2 or 3 empty plots that belong to them too. Their information is below.

Thanks.

Linda

Linda, I was just at the cemetery last week. The white cross looks to be about 4' tall and mounted on a concrete slab. There is two round "eyes" under the cross arms on each side. The North side is on about 8 3/4" center and the South arm is about 8 1/2" on center. There is no names or dates to be found. I would appreciate you sending the dates of your grandparents so I can record them. Thanks. Bob Douglas

Hi:

I wondered if you had any other information of my Grandparents, Robert Lee McFarland and Jane Bunia (Bell?) Campbell's grave, the white stone cross. Also, if you have any stories about the family way back then.

I thought I had a lead on the first McFarlands to come to TN, but it did not seem to work out. Mona Moreland called me from OK and mentioned you.

Thanks.
