Dear Renice,

Thank you so much for the research you did. I am sure it will be helpful to me in the future. Considering the size of your library, you have much more research material than most libraries. My grandfather William David Armstrong's first wife was Quinney Phillips. After their divorce, she married James Parsons in 1899. I found this at Grundy Co. Courthouse and on Grundy Co. 1900 census found Parsons, James, Quinney and the three Armstrong children, Clarence A., Flora B. and Frank. Frank, his wife Ruth Walker and Flora's son Edward Phipps are buried at Tracy City Cemetery.

On Franklin Co., Tn 1880 census, I found a William D. son of Robert & Indy. His age was correct, b. 1872, so I will continue my research in that direction for now. My cousin is coming from Ft. Worth June 18th and we plan to research in Tennessee for the two weeks that she will be here.

Enclosed is my chart and when I get more info, I will try to send you for the library. Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Dot
