Bill of Complaint:

J.W. Meeks vs. William Sweeton Bill of complaint dated March 1893, from J.W. Meeks of Grundy County against William Sweeton of same, regarding the construction of a house on a lot near Tracy City. "Your complainant would state to the Court that he is the acknowledged illegitimate son of Defendant, and that some time before he began to build the above-mentioned house Defendant stated to him, if he would...build himself a dwelling, that he...would make him a deed to the lot. After the house was completed and complainant lived in it up to some two months ago, defendant refused to make him a deed and has refused and failed to pay him for the house."

Deposition of J.W. Meeks, age 22:

Question: "State what he has ever done for you or given you indicating that he recognized you as his son...?"

Answer: "Well when I married he gave me a bedstead, dishes and etc. to go to housekeeping on... and promised to give me a deed to the lot on which I built my house. It came about in this way: I had contracted with the Company for a lot to build on, and came by Sweeton's house and his wife asked me why I did not build on the lot Mr. Sweeton was going to give me. I said to her that she would mad (sic) and not give a deed to the lot. She said she would swear she would give me a deed. A few days after that I saw Mr. Sweeton and he told me that the first day he was idle he would make me a deed..."

Depositor of Dosie Meeks, 17, wife of J.W. Meeks:

"Well, all I know about is that. is this. Mr. Sweeton's wife and my husband's mother had a falling out, and there was a great deal said, and I suppose this was the reason Mrs. Sweeton said Mr. Sweeton would not make my husband a title to the lot, that he would pay him for the house and keep the lot. She said this to me."

45. SUE8 SWEETON (FRANCIS MOSES (FRANZ)7, GREEN BERRY6, ROBERT5, DUTTON4, DUTTON3, ROBERT2 SWEETING, EDWARD1) was born 09 Sep 1882 in Grundy County, Tennessee, and died 10 Jul 1970 in Beersheba Springs, Grundy County, Tennessee. She married (1) LUTHER ARTHUR ARGO 02 Jul 1900 in Grundy County, Tennessee, son of RUSSELL ARGO and MARTHA HOBBS. He was born 02 Nov 1879 in Grundy County, Tennessee, and died 22 Aug 1916 in Grundy County, Tennessee. She married (2)

WILLIAM HARRIS CAMPBELL Abt. 1924, son of JAMES CAMPBELL and JANE MEEKS. He was born 22 Jul 1864 in Grundy County, Tennessee, and died 05 Oct 1929 in Grundy County, Tennessee.

Notes for SUE SWEETON:

Sue & Arthur Argo were living in the 2nd Civil District, Grundy County, Tennessee in 1910. Sue & the children were living on the Tracy City-Coalmont Road, 2nd Civil District, Grundy County, Tennessee in 1920. Sue & Harris Campbell lived in Pelham, Grundy County, Tennessee. Later Sue lived in Beersheba Springs, Grundy County, Tennessee.

Sue Campbell's Place:

Across Highway 56 from the Eddie Brown Log House is the farmhouse built in 1932 by Sue Sweeton Argo Campbell, sister of Emma Sweeton Brown, wife of Eddie Brown. Eddie and Emma had purchased the property in two tracts in 1906 from Frank and Emma Brown Gross and I. S. Brown. There was a house on the property at the site of the present house. My mother (Ethel Brown Hodge, daughter of Eddie and Emma Brown) and her younger siblings were born in that original house. It burned in 1921. As mentioned above, Eddie and Emma then acquired the house on the other side of the highway. In 1932, Emma's sister, Sue Sweeton Argo Campbell, asked Eddie and Emma if she might buy the land where the burned house had stood. Her first husband had been an Argo; after his death, she married a Campbell. He died in 1932 leaving her with a seven-year-old son, James Clifford Campbell (known as Clifford). Eddie and Emma agreed and sold her the property for $1. She built a small, three-room house with a front and back porch. I was told that Sue paid Henry Brown, a cousin on the Brown side, $300 to build the house. By 1940, the original back porch was closed in to make a small kitchen with a large, black, wood-burning cook stove, an eating area, and a small pantry where Aunt Sue stored her flour and other baking items. In the eating area stood an old wooden container where she kept clabber milk for baking her delicious biscuits. Her clabber was somewhat similar to our plain yogurt today. (Because of this memory, I sometimes make my biscuits or pancakes with yogurt.) Later the kitchen, eating area and pantry were expanded. Electricity came to the mountain in 1941. Water came much later in 1964, and when it did, Aunt Sue's son James put a bathroom in the pantry room, but Aunt Sue herself still preferred the outhouse. She said that the tub wasn't good for anything except drying apples. She left the house to Clifford, who added exterior stonework and siding. Clifford died in 2006; after the will was probated, I purchased the house and six acres and began renovations. Except for some modern conveniences, I have restored the house as nearly as possible to its original appearance. I took off drywall that was over several layers of wallpaper that was over newspaper and magazines plastered to the wall; one of the newspapers was The Agriculture Times. Underneath, we found tongue-and-groove paneling with the boards running horizontally. Two doorways to the old kitchen (used before back porch was made into rooms) had been closed with strips of wood. Missing and not likely to return are the old smokehouse, the chicken house, the outhouse, the old fences that separated the garden and the one that kept Aunt Sue's cow and calves in the pasture. The blackberries along the back fence are missing, but maybe I'll get them back. A cousin has a nursery on the property. Between my mother's my father's sides of the family, this property has now been in my family for over 100 years.

Davidson County, Tennessee. She married EDDIE HOLLIN BROWN 31 Aug 1904 in Grundy County, Tennessee, son of WILLIAM

BROWN and PENELOPE SAINT. He was born 05 Jun 1879 in Grundy County, Tennessee, and died 11 Mar 1946 in Nashville, Davidson County, Tennessee.

Burial: 1945, Grace Chapel Cemetery, Beersheba Springs, Grundy County, Tenn.

Occupation: Housewife

Notes for EDDIE HOLLIN BROWN:

Eddie & Emma Jane lived in Beersheba Springs & Coalmont, Grundy County, Tennessee. They were living in the 2nd Civil District, Grundy County, Tennessee in 1910 & on the Coalmont-Tracy City Road, 2nd Civil District, Grundy County, Tennessee in 1920.

Obituary for Edward Harris (Eddie Hollin) Brown:

Mr. Edward Harris (sic) Brown, age 66, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ethel Hodge, in Nashville, Monday, March 11, and was burried (sic) at the Grace Chapel Cemetery March 13. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. R.A. Sullivan, of Nashville, Rev. Bud Hampton, of Palmer, Rev. Luther Brown and Rev. J.M. Bean. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Ethel Hodge and Mrs. Hazel Davis, of Nashville; Mrs. Sam Merrill, of Beersheba; and two sons, Douglass (sic), of Chicago, and Jimmie, of Nashville, and four brothers, Sanford, Hendrix and Frank, of Coalmont, and John, of Beersheba. Pallbearers were; Clarence, Carl David, Rudolph and Dennis Brown, Wayne Clotz, and Clifford Campbell.

Brown Cottage (Tom Cagle Lots), Beersheba Springs, Grundy County, Tennessee:

The 10.25 acres of land (Tom Cagle Lots) were part of an original tract of land which was sold in 1868 by William & Harriet Roger to the Schofters. The Schofters, in turn, sold the tract to Henry C. & Maude Merritt for $350. Following this the land was known as "The Merritt Tract".

Tom Cagle, before receiving a deed, built the log house in 1903. He had made a verbal agreement to buy $7\frac{3}{4}$ acres of land for \$40.00. However he & his wife, Gertrude, later moved to Kimberly, Idaho. (Thomas' brother, Sterling Cagle, whose wife was Nannie Stokes, built the log house next door to the east. It was later bought by Asa Morton of Oklahoma for his sister, Mary Morton Tate who was the wife of Oscar Tate, in 1920. It was inherited by their daughter, Elsie Tate. There was a third log house to the east which burned down & which was the home of Canova Cagle & his wife, Martha Tate, who were the parents

& Sterling.)

On 30 October 1905, a deed was signed jointly by Henry & Maude Merritt & Thomas & Gertrude Cagle to John Calvin Smith for $300. The deed stipulated that Thomas Cagle was to be paid for building the house.

John Calvin Smith & his second wife, Edthia C. Van nee Perry, lived in the house until 18 November 1911, when they sold it to John Calvin's son, Franklin H. Smith, & son-in-law, Bishop Marvin Brown, for $600.

On 4 October 1913, Franklin & his wife, Nellie T. nee Tate, sold their interest to T.B. Northcutt.

In 1921 Eddie Hollin Brown & his wife, Emma Jane nee Sweeton, bought the house & land after their house across the street burned down. They traded the land across the street as a down-payment on the house plus $1000. They lived there until their deaths in 1946 & 1945 respectively.

Ethel & Hazel tell the story when the house burned that Hazel held Jimmy, Ethel ran to Mary Means House where Eddie was working, Emma handed buckets of water to Douglas who poured it on the roof, & Gladys stood on the cistern screaming "what are we going to do." Eugene Bohr (Plumacher Home called Dan) helped take furniture out of the house. He kept trying to get the rocker out but could not get it through the door or window & just as the roof fell in he pulled it through the door. Bud Whitman's grandfather made the rocker.

The church pew on the back porch came from Grace Chapel when Eddie & Emma purchased one of the new pews.

Eddie & Emma's son, Douglas F. Brown, & his wife, Rose Marie nee Ippolito, purchased the house & property in 1946 from the other heirs.

The Eddie Brown Log House:

This house of sawn log construction stands on the north side of Highway 56, about one tenth of a mile east of Grace Chapel.

Thomas Cagle, son of Canova Cagle and grandson of Ben Cagle, with his wife Gertrude, made a verbal agreement with Henry Thomas Cagle, son of Canova Cagle and grandson of Ben Cagle, with his wife Gertrude, made a verbal agreement with Henry

C. Merritt and wife Maude Merritt to buy 7 ¾ acres of land for $40.00 on October 10, 1902. This land came from the original tract sold in 1868 by William and Harriet Rogers to the Schofters, who in turn had sold the tract to Henry Merritt for $350. It seems that Tom Cagle, before receiving a deed, had built the house on the 7 ¾ acre tract. Later he had an urge to go west as several others around Beersheba were doing at the time. He first went to Oklahoma, where he got in contact with Asa Morton, who had left the valley earlier. Eventually, Tom Cagle ended up in Kimberly, Idaho, and sent for his family. (Thomas and Gertrude Cagle had three children, one of whom was Toby Cagle, inventor of the Cagle brake, which is used now on racing cars and aircraft. He was vicepresident of Airheart Products, Inc., of Long Beach, California, the manufacturers of the Cagle Automatic Self-Adjusting Brake.) On October 30, 1905 a deed was signed jointly by Henry and Maude Merritt and Thomas and Gertrude Cagle to J. C. Smith for $300, which stipulated that Thomas Cagle was to be paid for building the house. J. C. Smith lived in this house from 1905 until November 18, 1911, when he and his wife, Editha Smith, sold it to his son, Frank Smith, and son-in-law, B. Marvin Brown, for $600. On October 4, 1913, Frank Smith and wife sold their interest to T. B. Northcutt. For the next few years the house was rented, usually to the Henry L. Brown family, who lived there during the summer and went to Chattanooga for the winters until 1916 when they returned to Beersheba to live after surviving the flooding of the Tennessee River and a smallpox epidemic in Chattanooga. In 1918 the Ernest J. Hege property, consisting of three houses, became available and the Henry L. Brown family moved there. Soon thereafter, in 1921, the home of Eddie Brown across the highway from the house Tom Cagle had built burned, and Eddie, a brother of B. Marvin Brown, bought the log house and lived there the rest of his life. Eddie was a superintendent in the coal mines and farmed. He was commended by the governor of Tennessee for his good farming practices. He also served as a Justice of the Peace and did a number of marriages, some on the front porch. He and his wife Emma Sweeton Brown had five children living at the the time their deaths. Emma died in 1945 and Eddie in 1946. The five children inherited the house; and the eldest son, Douglas F. Brown, acquired the interest of the others. Douglas lived in Chicago and worked in the Chicago post office for many years. In Chicago he met and married Rose Ippolito. They moved to Tinley park, a suburb of Chicago, where Rose was elected mayor in 1949. The house at Beersheba was their summer home. Upon retirement, they returned to Tennessee, first to Nashville and later to McMinnville. Douglas died in 1988, survived by Rose and six children. The house remained the property of Rose and was used by the children and grandchildren during the summers.

Notes for FUNSTON ELMER (ROJO) BROWN:

In 1920 Funston was serving as a Pharmacy Mate 3rd Class, U.S. Navy & was stationed with the 15th Regiment, U.S. Marine

Corp, Eastern District, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. He gave his home address as 333 Jefferson Street, Huntsville, Alabama.

Funston was the president of the International Typographical Union.

The following information is from Becky Chapman nee Huff:

"From my grandparents Funston "Rojo" & Rosita "Honey" ... came my mother Josephine "Jo" or "Phina" or "Fina" depending on whether you were American or Spanish. And, then came her sister Anna. I was the first grandchild and Josephine's only child for 8 years. Nine months after I was born, Peggy was born to Anna. We don't know her father. Anna married Dick Schatzabel and next came their son Michael and then Judy.....This was when we all lived in Tampa. I didn't like Dick at all. He was a big and scary presence. He would whip the kids with a razor strap. Mom said that at one time he wanted to sell Peggy. Mom said she saw Peggy and Michael getting food from a trash can, but I don't remember that one myself. He gambled and got into trouble and ended up in prison for breaking his parole in Nevada. Mom said he was just awful. Michael spent a lot of time with my mom and stepdad when he was little. Judy spent time with Honey and Rojo. Dick has a sister named June, who "went nuts" and ended up in chattahoochee. (You see where this all leads) Somewhere towards the end of that relationship came Dianna, called DeeDee. I don't think she has any memory of Dick. I remember Mom telling the story of when DeeDee was born the quack Dr? delivered her, but left the afterbirth inside and Anna became deathly ill. What a life!!

Before Anna married Frank Hoffman (she met him in Idaho), Peg said that her mom drifted around a lot staying with whomever would take her and the 4 kids in - and at one point stayed in a Catholic home or shelter. My grandparents usually helped her but they must have had it with Dick and sent Anna to Honey's relatives in California. I forgot how she got to Idaho....Anyway...that's where she met Frank. He was a barber and married. He divorced his wife and followed her back to Florida, where they eventually married and he raised the four kids. Michael could not have had a better father. He was really a good man and great with the kids. They ended up moving up to Phillipsburg, Pennsylvania, so Frank could work for the union (International Typographical Workers Union that Rojo was the president of at that time and until his death in 1968). That is how they got that awful Yankee accent! lol. Anna and Frank had a son in 1965. That's John Beecher Hoffman. He is gay and Peggy had a big falling out with him when her mom died over unpaid funeral bills and his gayness I'm sure. He is one of a very few redheads from Rojo's genes. Peggie's son Danny is also, and so is Michael's daughter Shawn (I think she calls herself Shanna now)

While Anna and Frank were living in Florida..before they moved up north...they lived in projects in Jacksonville, which I thought were great a the time - all these kids and a little playground of your own...We were also living in Jacksonville. That was when Judy fell. The projects had no carpet and the walls were painted with gloss paint...I still hate that kind of paint. It was cold and grey and had a second story. Judy was leaning over the upstairs rail and fell over. She landed in front of the front door on the hard, cold cement. I STILL THINK this did something to her. Or else her Aunt June passed some weird genes to her. She was never taken to the doctor. She also got hold of someone's sleeping pills around this time, or maybe before, and when she wouldn't wake up for school, Anna took the belt to her. Of course she still didn't wake up and ended up in the hospital. By the time she was 15, living in Phillipsburg, she ran away. She ended up in New Orleans. She danced. Eventually she met up with Dick Schatzabel, her father.

(She will tell you that Frank Hoffman was her Daddy). Dick had some teenaged kids hanging around with him, up to no good as usual. I picture him like an old hippie Fagin. Judie (by this time Peggy changed her spelling to Peggie and Judy followed her with Judie). Eventually Dick tried to have sex with Judie, his own daughter, and she cut those ties for good.

Judie). Eventually Dick tried to have sex with Judie, his own daughter, and she cut those ties for good.

Joanna was Judie's first child and I do not know who her father was. (I'll have to ask her). Then, Judie had a boyfriend named Wayne. He is Rick's father. Judie had a son named Emile, who was very ill, a lot of problems, and she gave him up for adoption.

She then had a boyfriend named Steve Jobert (Jobear) in Metairie, LA and married him. They were together a while.

Then they divorced and he would have the kids for visits. This always bothered me, but I never heard he did anything wrong. Judie had a stillborn son after that named Winston.

Now - about this time Anna divorced Frank Hoffman. Frank had slapped Anna. Peggie saw him do it and declared her hate for him. Anna made Michael choose between her and Frank. At the time DeeDee was with her high school sweetheart husband doing heroin. My mother, step-dad and three boys were living in Colorado. Everyone ended up there. Anna got a job on the base and got herself a "soldier boyfriend" named Joseph. Judie ended up there too... and that is when I saw for myself the extent of Judie's lifestyle. "A chicken is a better mother!!" Anna had her son John Beecher Hoffmann and Judie's Joanna with her. Anna's boyfriend molested them. Judie's son Ricky was with my mom...for many years, and Joanna too after the incident. Anna flipped out from what Joseph did, but swore it was not true. She went back to Penn to Peggie's open arms. She told Peggie it was not true and really kind of had a break down. Because my mom believed what the kids said - she and Anna disconnected for many years.

And these two had been very close. Peggie was really angry, and so she picked...Eeny meeny miny moe...my mom. So the bottom line is, Anna was trampy, Judie was unfit, the kids were abused...my mom took them in. Joanna went back and forth from mom to Judie. Joanna and her mom at this time dropped the Anna off her name, because Anna told her she was a liar and took Joseph the molester's side.....She became Jo. And my mom never judged; just was sad that Anna had "gone off the deep end".

In the years after that debacle...Judie fought with my brother Bill and they took turns turning each other in to Social Services. Judie just had Jo and sometimes Ricky. I don't know how the heck Judie ended up in Rochelle, Ill....But she did, and married Danny Sexton. They had Becky Jo, then Danny Ray and Donny Jay. I did visit them once when Dennis was working a focus group in Chicago. I remember when Judie was Judy and the most adorable little blond girl with the raspy hoarse voice, hair in a short bob, parted on the side with a barrette and a sprinklin of freckles. Just a little doll. And she was my shadow whenever we were together. So, I always see that little girl in her face and still love her. So, I drove out for a visit and met Danny Sexton. Ugh!! But, Judie for the first time seemed like she was finding her niche. She was pregnant with the first boy, Danny Ray. Becky Jo was a tot. A few years later they split and she ended up in Dubuque...She met and married Jim Root. Her son Ricky had a son, Jordan. Joanna had her 2 boys and I don't know is she married their dad...Joanna has had a lifetime of problems. Ricky eventually met Tracy Grieves (sp), got married and finally has it together. He adopted Tracy's son Isakk. They have Amber and Peyton. You can tell he didn't spend much time in school, but, I bet he works hard! I always loved Ricky a lot. My mom adored him. Joanna "Jo" also had a Mercedes "Sadie." Now she is the one who is kicking her heels!

Now the good Judie. After she met and married Jim Root, my mom became sick with the same kind of emphysema that killed Anna. Judie and Jim would make the trip over to CO to visit mom or send her some of the money for a plane ticket to visit them. (I don't really believe that). They showed her a great time. Jim took her to the dog races and the casino's to play slots. Fussed over her and she loved it.

When mom got sicker, I flew out regularly and would stay a week here and there. Sometimes Judie would come out too and we would have coffee in the morning. We'd go back over the years and talk about how hard her life had been; how Mom had always loved her and never disowned her (a regular thing for Anna); and always found a way to send money or take the kids. We talked about her real father and how she thinks she was adopted and that Anna was not her mom. She wanted my mom.....Of course that is not true. Anna was her mother...

When mom ended up in the hospital and then went to my brother Bill's house. I stepped in again and got her out and back to her own home. Judie was right there with me and stayed when I had to go home. She and Jim made regular visits for Iown to Grand Junction many many times. When Mom died Judie was just devastated. She and DeeDee were there for the funeral and Ricky too. Ricky and my son Shaun go way back.....Ricky taught Shaun how to clean fish. We were all together, along with my brothers

Steven and James. My brother Bill, the outlaw now, stayed back and when I told him goodbye it was final. He took mom's money and her meds and tried to keep Power of Atty and get her house...he just was a nasty son.

So, I will give Judie this. She is a survivor. She loves her children and will fight for them. She loved my mom. She loves family.

Jim died a few years ago. They did have a different but good marriage. First time she ever knew that kind of love. Jim died a few years ago. They did have a different but good marriage. First time she ever knew that kind of love.

When we were getting ready for Mom's funeral...Judie dropped her dentures on the bathroom floor. One of the front teeth broke. I thought I would pee my pants laughing. We needed some super glue fast! Everyone scrambled around Mom's house looking for superglue...in one of her drawers was 4 or 5 tubes. So we glued her tooth back together, and to this day when I think of that sad sad day I have to chuckle a bit at crazy Judie. I'm glad you confirmed her as a Facebook Friend.
